AUSTRALIA CLOSE TO THREAT ON HER OWN SHORES: MUST LOOK TO EMPIRE'S AIR FORCES FOR VICTORY

Furtive Movements By Japan Bears Close Resemblance To Nazi Technique In Balkans

"AUSTRALIA MUST FACE THE FACT THAT SHE IS CLOSE TO A THREAT ON HER OWN SHORES. You have already answered the challenge for the ownership of this country. On the determination of your efforts depends the answer to the question: 'At the end of this war, shall we own Australia or shall we be a subject race?'"

"WE MUST LOOK TO THE AIR FORCES OF THE EMPIRE IF WE ARE TO WIN THIS STRUGGLE. WIN WE MUST AND WILL."

These words were spoken yesterday by the AUSTRALIAN MINISTER FOR AIR, SIR JOHN MCEWEN, when he addressed members of Australia's Air Force, states a Sydney message.

The address was made soon after a historic meeting of the AUSTRALIAN WAR CABINET in Sydney yesterday. This followed a meeting of the Australian Advisory War Council which was held on Thursday and which issued a joint statement by the Acting Prime Minister, Mr. A. W. Fadden, and Mr. J. Curtin, the Labour Leader, before adjourning to meet yesterday.

UNDER NOSE OF GESTAPO!

There are a growing number of secret Anti-Nazi newspapers being published in Holland and circulated almost under the nose of the Gestapo, states a London message. One paper tells the Dutch people, "The only thing you can learn from the Nazis is how to fight underground."—(Special)

Grit And Determination Of Lancashire People

DURING A VISIT TO MANCHESTER AND SALFORD IN LANCASHIRE ON THURSDAY, THE KING AND QUEEN CLIMBED OVER HEAPS OF RUBBLE AND SAW THE RUINS OF THE ROYAL EXCHANGE, states a London message.

Although the visit was kept a closely guarded secret news of the arrival of Their Majesties quickly spread and hundreds of thousands of citizens turned out and the Police had to erect crush barriers. An ambulance woman driver told her Majesty: "I drove for 13 hours without a rest. I would not have missed it for the world."

"THAT OLD DEVIL"

A 70-year-old woman, who was blown from the kitchen to the front door of her house by a bomb, said, cheerfully, "That old devil has not killed us yet."

Mr. Herbert Morrison, the Home Secretary, who was present during the tour, said that their Majesties took away with them unforgettable memories of the grit and determination of the Lancashire people.—(Special)

Factor Of Speed In The Present War Against Hitler, Says Mr. Steed

TRUCULENT MATSUOKA

"The factor of speed enters so largely into a great undertaking that there is much to be said for the phrase 'Taking Time by the Forelock,'" said MR. WICKHAM STEED, the author-journalist, and well-known commentator on "World Affairs" when he broadcast from London yesterday.

"In this war," said Mr. Steed, "there is one factor which has not been fully taken into account—it is the factor of speed. A little while ago news came in a laconic telegram that Benghazi has fallen and yet it must be regarded now as a nine-days wonder."

"And now the scenes have quickly shifted. The Balkans are one of them, and Australia and the Far East are another. Australia is keeping a shrewd eye on the Japanese."

"I have spoken before of Mr. Matsuoka, the Japanese Foreign Minister. He can be a very truculent gentleman but his truculence this time has not worked and will not work with Britain and the United States."

UNTHINKABLE

Here Mr. Steed referred to the arrival of the Japanese Ambassador to the United States in Washington and to his reported comment that war between the United States and Japan was unthinkable.

"It is unthinkable," said Mr. Steed, "but there has been so much disappointment that friends of Japan in Britain and elsewhere think it is wiser to look at her deeds now than to heed her words."

Mr. Steed gave examples of his meaning when he declared that Japan, for instance, had no need

RUMANIAN CHARGE D'AFFAIRES RESIGNS

LONDON, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—The Rumanian Charge d'Affaires in London, M. Florescu and the Press Attache, M. I. Murgo, who should have returned to Rumania, have tendered their resignations to the Rumanian Government.

JAPANESE WARSHIPS SAID OFF BANGKOK

FRESH DEMANDS ON N.E.I.

Japanese warships are manoeuvring off Bangkok and Haiphong, according to a message from Sydney, which quotes a report from American newspaper correspondents.

The message also added that two Soviet ships recently left Shanghai taking German nationals to Vladivostok.

Another message from Sydney states that Japan has made fresh demands on the Netherlands East Indies for the exploitation of mining leases and fisheries and for the right to send Japanese to work on the mines there and also put forward a proposal for an air service between the Netherlands East Indies and Japan.—(Special)

New Type Of Life-Saving Raft

A new type of life-saving raft was successfully demonstrated at a British north-east port yesterday, states a London message. It is specially designed to save the lives of men of the merchant navy who may be shipwrecked.

Newspapers carried pictures of the new raft and one paper printed the caption, "The Nazis won't like this."—(Special)

STAFF TALKS IN ANKARA

The British military mission, representing the Middle East Command, had a final meeting with the Turkish Staff in Ankara on Thursday, states a London message. The meeting was regarded by both sides as most satisfactory.—(Special)

Today's News Summary

AN IMPORTANT MEETING of the Australian Advisory War Council was held in Sydney yesterday when the Chiefs of Staff and the Commander-in-Chief of the Far East were present. The Acting Prime Minister, in statement, said that the warnings he and the Council had given were necessary but latest information showed there was no deterioration in the situations.

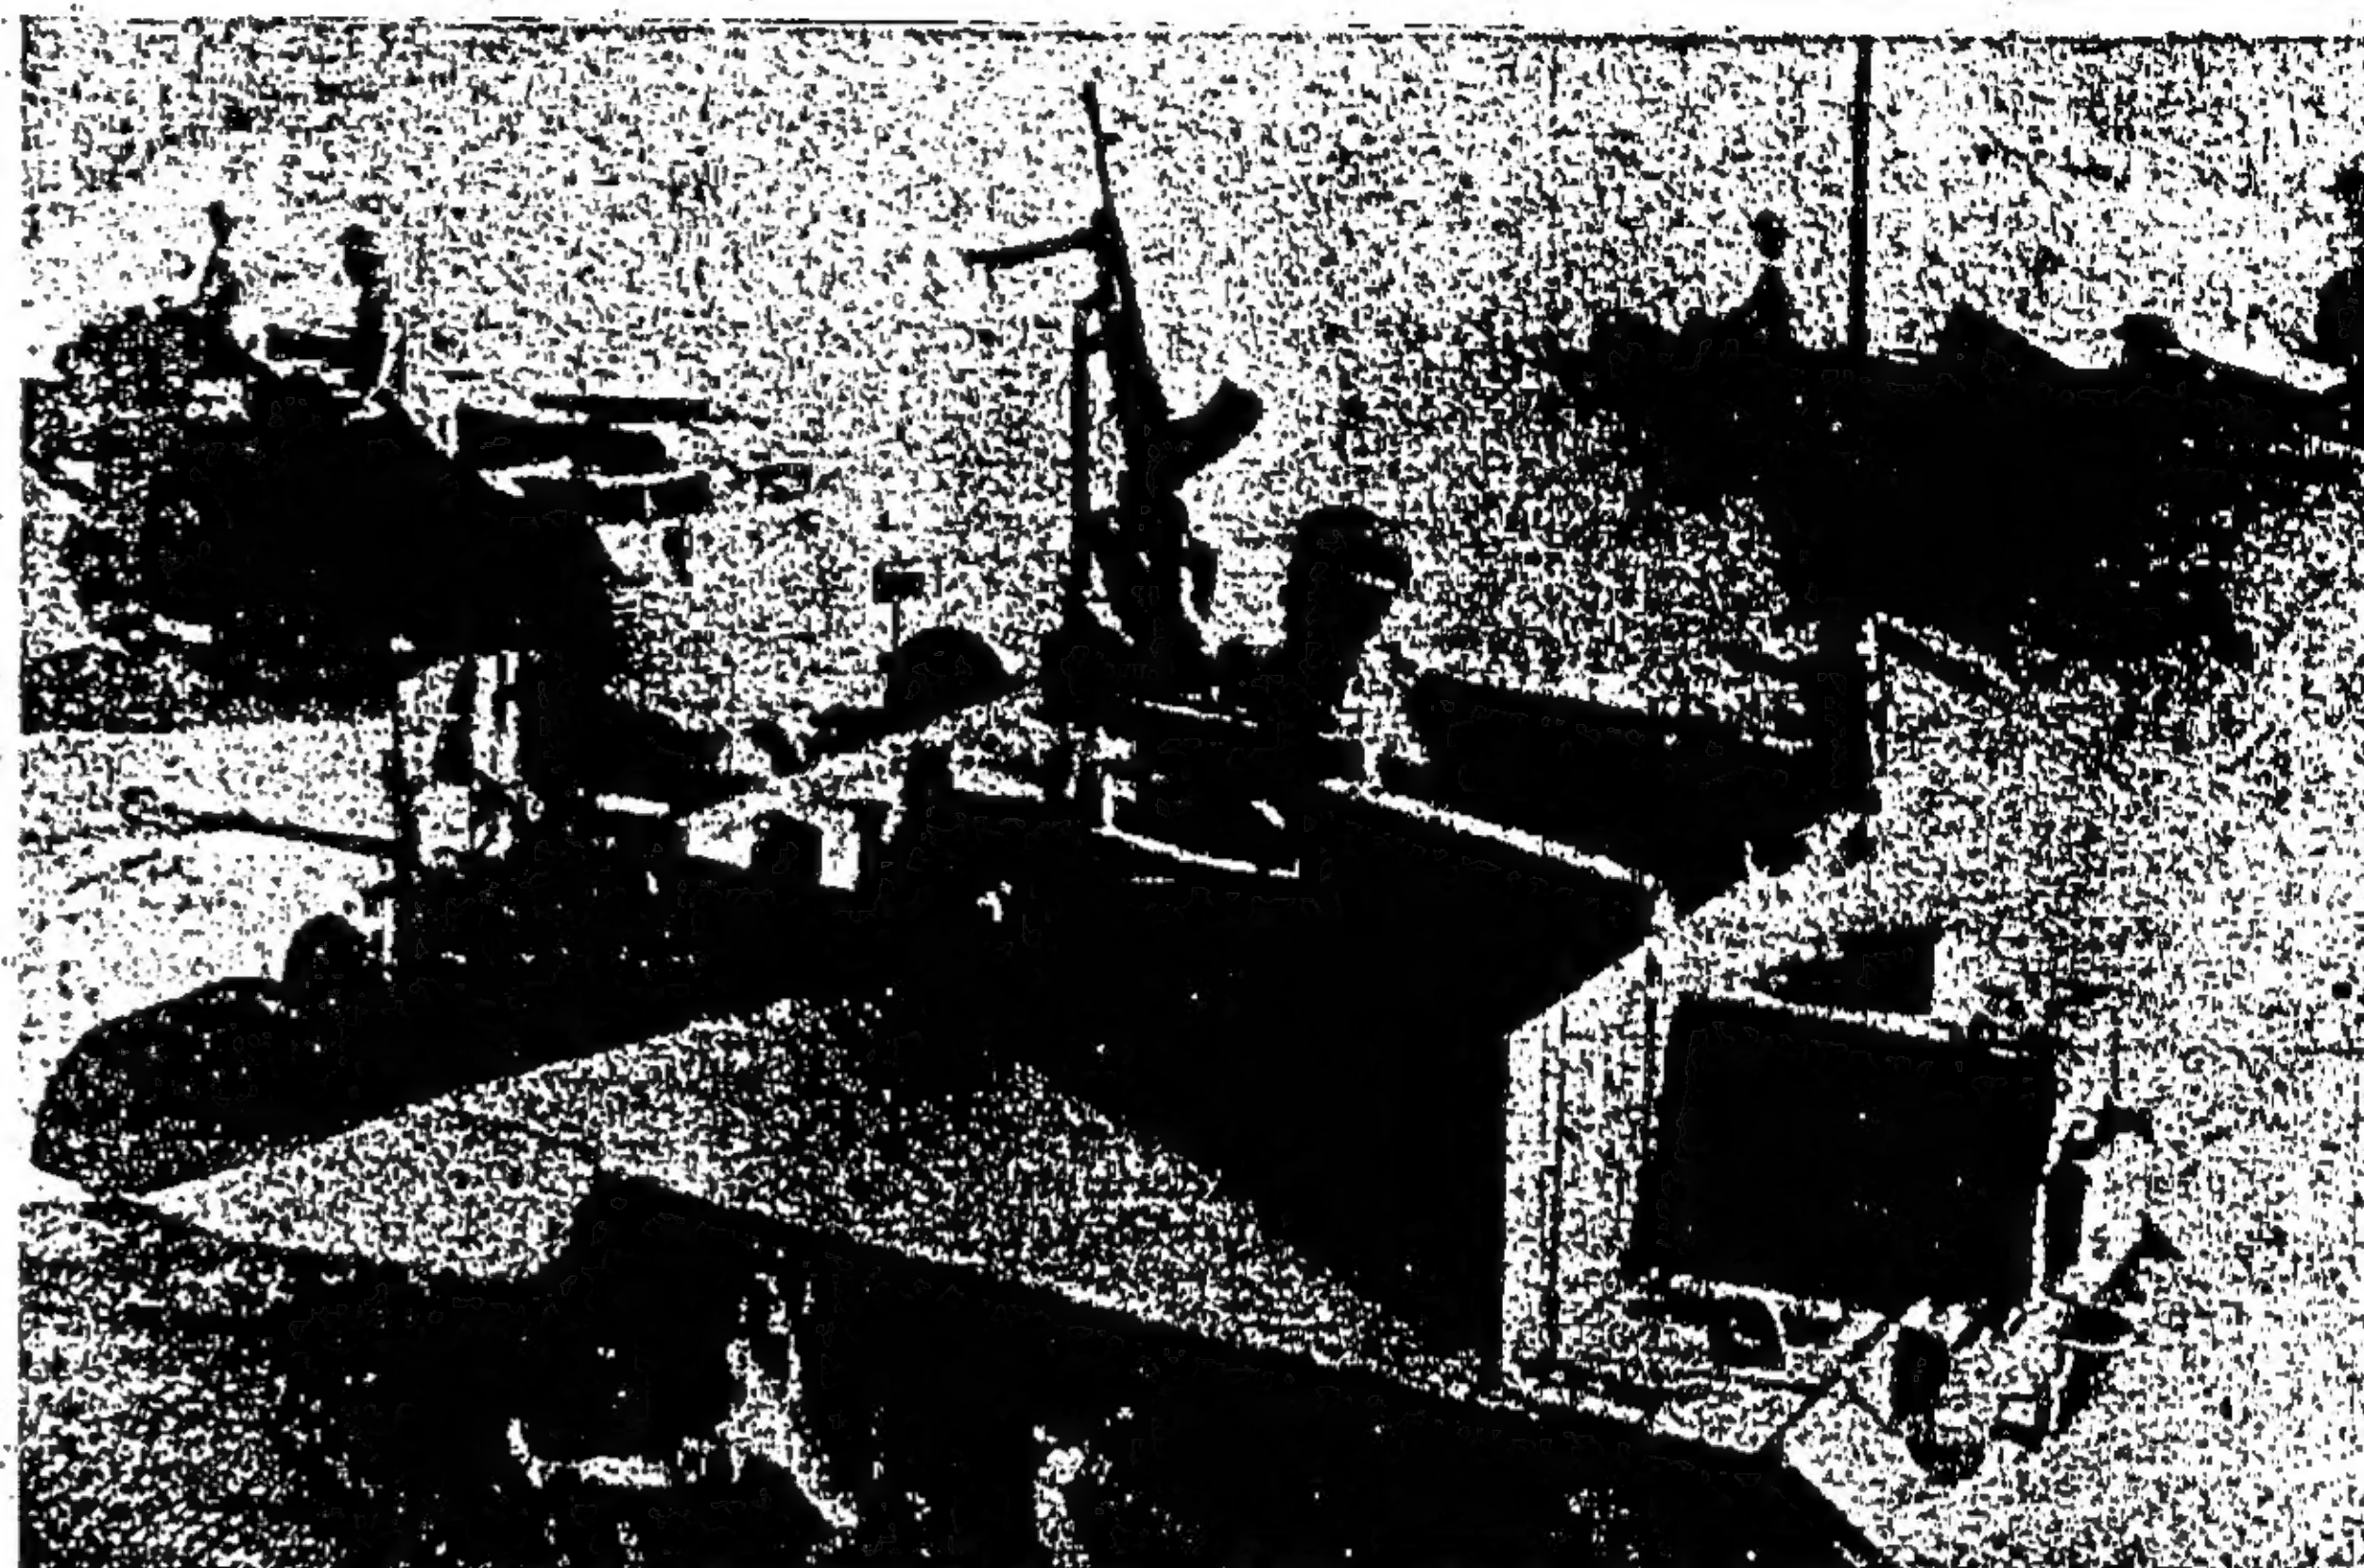

THE TALKS BETWEEN the Spanish dictator, Mussolini and Petain have concluded and the Marshal has returned to Vichy and Franco to Spain. There is no particular excitement in Madrid and it is felt in London that Franco would not agree to any startling change in Spanish policy.

THE KING AND QUEEN visited Manchester and a town in Lancashire where they inspected bomb damage. Their Majesties climbed over heaps of rubble and saw the ruins of the Royal Exchange. Mr. Herbert Morrison, the Minister of Home Security, accompanied them.

THE SITUATION AT Keren in Eritrea continues to develop and South African troops are penetrating enemy territory in Abyssinia.

THE LEASE AND LEND Bill is likely to become law within a fortnight or three weeks. The Administration leaders are confident that the Bill will be passed by the Senate on Monday.

THEY PLAYED A BIG PART AT BENGHAZI

This cluster of British Bren-gun carriers was caught by the camera during the preliminaries that led to the capture of Bardia. In desert fighting they more than proved their worth. Manned by Australians the machines shown in the picture possess a high speed and manoeuvrability—important factors in desert warfare. Against Benghazi they again proved their worth.

NO REASON TO BELIEVE FRANCO WILL AGREE TO ANY STARTLING CHANGE IN POLICY OF SPAIN

After travelling all night, MARSHAL PETAIN, accompanied by ADMIRAL DARLAN, has arrived in VICHY following his meeting with GENERAL FRANCO who is now back in SPAIN, states a London message.

The objects of the talks between Petain and Mussolini and the aged Marshal and Franco are still unknown. No official statement has been issued beyond a very vague communiqué.

THANKS FOR GIFTS FROM HONGKONG

The following copy of a telegram received by His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government from the Secretary of State for the Colonies is published for general information:—

No. 110.

Following from Lord Beaverbrook.

The gifts we have received from the people of Hong Kong are an immense encouragement to the people of Britain as well as valuable addition to the strength of the R. A. F.

Our gratitude is deep for this evidence of the generous support of a far off but vital outpost of our Empire in the great struggle for freedom and civilisation.

In London it is stated that there is no reason to believe that Franco will agree to any startling change in Spanish policy while Madrid shows no signs of any particular excitement and there is no comment.

Some Italian papers, writing on the meeting, stated: "Fascist Italy salutes her friend Spain."

POINTS DISCUSSED
A message from Salgon states that the points discussed at the meetings were:—

CURTAILED SOFTBALL
CARD TOMORROWCanadian Chinese Clash
With C.B.C.

BY "R.O.Y."

This week's softball programme, having been considerably curtailed by the recommencement of Volunteer Camps, will consist of only three matches in the Ladies' League and two Men's First Division games, all of which will be played at the Kowloon Football Club.

Providing the only item likely to be of interest, the Canadian Chinese clash with the Chinese Baseball Club at 2 p.m. The former are well ensconced in the cellar, with eleven defeats and not a single win, but have served notice that they intend to take their first points of the season at the expense of the Lumen who will start Denham Cray, former Canuck infield star, on the mound to turn back his team-mates of last season.

Wally Ching is expected to make one of his infrequent appearances and the Chinese Baseballers will field probably their strongest line-up with the possible exception of Earl Wong. The Canucks will have speed artist Herbie Quon on the hillcock so an excellent pitchers' duel should be seen.

FLORINHAS IMPROVE

The programme will start thirty minutes later than usual, the opener, at 9.30 a.m., featuring the Cardinals in action against the Little Flower Club. The Redbirds are a cinch to hold the middle spot in the League standings when the campaign ends, but will improve their average with an easy victory over the Florinhas who, although they have not reached the heights of softball artistry, have shown commendable improvement with each outing.

Another dull game will be the Chungwa-Wildcats affair at 11 a.m.; the former have yet to open their account and it is certain that they won't do it against the Wildcats who are excellently placed to have their names engraved on the Southard Shield.

The Wildcats, as they did in their first-round meeting, will probably take this opportunity to push up their bumping so, even if the Chung Hwa lassies commit their usual quota of bobbles, the score should be comparatively low. The last of the girls' games will probably be the best as the league leading Canadian Chinese lassies will be opposed by the Baby Panthers whose defensive ability is always likely to give them unexpected points.

TAKE NO CHANCES

The Canuckettes, though, will take no chances on throwing away their pennant hopes and will bear down from the word "go." Heavier hitting power, should give Bill Woo's Maple Leafs the decision but the Baby Panthers are sure to provide worthy opposition.

The only other game on the card will be the Recrelo Aces-Filipino Club fracas that should be a walk-a-way for the Ramblers, especially as, so I am given to understand, several of the Filipino stalwarts will forego their softball to make an appearance for the International Athletic Club in the Junior Shield soccer quarter-finals.

Programme and umpires:
KOWLOON FOOTBALL CLUB
9.30 a.m. Cardinals v. Florinhas (Nip Lum, C. Marques, Al Lau)
11 a.m. Chung Hwa v. Wildcats (F. Molthen, J. Fonseca, D. Walker)
12.30 p.m. Canuckettes v. Panthers (T. Chan, S. Leonard, A. R. Kitchell)
2 p.m. Canucks v. C.B.C. (Molthen, C. Waggoner, D. Walker)
3.15 p.m. Recrelo Aces v. Filipinos (Nip Lum, W. Woo, A. M. Omar).

ATHLETE'S FOOT

At the recent meeting of the American Academy of Dermatology and Syphilology Dr. William S. Becker (University of Chicago) poochpoohed the popular misconception that athlete's foot is caused solely by a skin fungus of the toes.

Research conducted at the University of Chicago indicates that this affliction may also be caused by nervous exhaustion and inability to relax properly, he reported.

An examination of thirty children who were not permitted to use their school's swimming pool because of athlete's foot revealed a fungus growth in only one instance.

A later examination of ninety-three adults with athlete's foot showed that only 30 per cent. had actual fungus infections.

Only the fungus type is infectious. Rest and relaxation are the only cures for the nervous type.

Good Soccer
Promised In Lai Wah Cup

Volunteer Camp again caused many changes in the original league fixtures for this week-end, the First Division game between ST. JOSEPH'S and NAVY this afternoon having been postponed.

Though much of the interest in the Lai Wah Cup competition fell away with the defeat of the Chinese, tomorrow's final between ARMY and CIVILIANS should produce some good soccer on the Club ground.

On paper both teams are strong in defence but Naysmith and Fraser, as a pair, hold the advantage of being team-mates.

Three League matches are down for decision this afternoon the best of which should be the SING TAO-MIDDLESEX encounter.

In the other games, ROYAL SCOTS and POLICE should gather full points from CLUB and KOWLOON, respectively.

SOONG LING-SING
EXONERATEDProtection For Referees

Soong Ling-sing, who was sent off the field in the game between Sing Tao and Kowloon, for allegedly tripping the referee, was exonerated by the Emergency Committee of the Hongkong Football Association which met yesterday evening. It was explained that it was purely an accident.

A grave warning to unruly sections of spectators was issued as the result of a decision reached at the meeting. Any spectator, who is caught throwing things at the referee, will be arrested and prosecuted.

All Clubs concerned, it is understood, will be asked to give adequate protection to the referee.

Tomorrow, at Boundary Street, KWONG WAH will have a severe test when they are opposed to EASTERN.

WHEN SILENCE WAS GOLDEN

When President Roosevelt was a young lawyer just getting started in New York, he was retained to handle a difficult civil case. The opposing lawyer was a very effective jury pleader and completely outshone his youthful rival in the argument to the jury. However, he made one fatal mistake: he orated for several hours. As he thundered on, Roosevelt noticed that the jury wasn't paying much attention. So, playing a hunch when his turn came, he rose and said:

"Gentlemen, you have heard the evidence. You also have listened to my distinguished colleague, a brilliant orator. If you believe him and disbelieve the evidence, you will have to decide in his favour. That's all I have to say."

The jury was out only five minutes and brought in a verdict for Roosevelt's client.

GOD BLESS AMERICA PUT INTO GERMAN

A German translation of Irving Berlin's "God Bless America" has been made to fill a need on the part of those of German lineage in the United States who feel that "Germania is our mother, America our bride."

Forty thousand German-Americans sang "God Bless America" in German recently in a Rochester park where they were gathered to celebrate German Day, which commemorates the landing of the first organized group of German immigrants in America in 1883.

The popular patriotic song was adapted and translated by Elizabeth Schwerin, German-American newspaper woman, who recently suggested in one of her regular columns in the Milwaukee Deutsche Zeitung that "God Bless America" be sung at meetings of German-American organizations to manifest their loyalty to the United States.

KING'S THEATRE ATTRACTION

Dust Be My Destiny

"Dust Be My Destiny," second of the big hit shows of the fall film season, will open today at the King's Theatre with John Garfield and Priscilla Lane in the co-starring roles. This team, which proved so popular in "Four Daughters" and "Daughters Courageous," is supported by a large cast of players, headed by Alan Hale, Frank McHugh, Billy Halop, Bobby Jordan, Charles Grapewin, Henry Armetta, Stanley Ridges, John Littel, Moroni Olsen and Victor Kilian.

"Dust Be My Destiny," is a straight-from-the-heart tale of two young "nobodies" who fall in love and marry, and who ask nothing of the world except the right to earn their livings and a place to hang their hats. But even these simple things are denied them, because the boy is a fugitive from justice, for a murder which he didn't commit. Even when the boy, through his heroism, aids in the capture of a band of notorious bank robbers, the shadow of the law hangs over him. His vindication in the climactic courtroom scene forms a poignant dramatic ending. William Seller directed.

FRANCO HAS LONG TALK WITH MARSHAL PETAIN

Mediterranean Discussed At Meeting With Il Duce

MONT PELLIER, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—Marshal Petain received General Franco at the Prefecture here at 1.55 p.m. yesterday. After lunching together the two leaders had a conversation lasting three hours. General Franco was accompanied by his Foreign Minister, Senor Serrano Suner, and a suite composed of both civilian and military officials.

While General Franco and Marshal Petain were together a large crowd gathered outside the building and cheered loudly. Responding to demands, they appeared on the balcony and were greeted with shouts of "Vive Franco! Vive Petain!" Both were smiling.

RELIEF FOR DEPENDENTS OF "JERVIS" CASUALTIES

LONDON, Feb. 14 (British Wireless)—The Basra British War Relief Fund has sent £5,000 to the Admiralty for distribution among dependents of seamen who lost their lives in the sinking of the Jervis Bay.

It will be recalled that the Jervis Bay saved the convoy by heroically drawing the full fire of a heavily armed German raider.

RED CROSS FUND
Including gifts of £800 from Lima and £750 from Chile, the Duke of Gloucester's Red Cross and St. John Fund for wounded has now reached £4,335,000.

African War Fronts

ITALIANS RESIST AT KERN

CAIRO, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—The Italians are putting up a stout resistance round Kern, strategic town 60 miles northwest of Asmara in Eritrea.

The fighting was very tough and was over difficult ground.

The British advance is progressing towards Arreza which lies 30 miles south-west of Asmara. Here the country is also difficult and the retreating Italians have been obliged to jettison much of their equipment.

The advance east of Lake Rudolf in Abyssinia is also progressing satisfactorily. Patrol actions only are reported from other fronts.

JAPANESE DEPREDATION IN S. HONAN

Chungking Appealed For Relief Funds

LOYANG, Feb. 14 (Central)—Humiliated at the failure of their recent campaign in southern Honan, the Japanese troops in their retreat indulged in an orgy of indiscriminate killing, plunder and incendiarism, causing widespread destruction and suffering to the people.

In order to afford immediate relief to the recovered cities in southern Honan, the Political Department of the Central China War Zone has wired the National Relief Commission in Chungking, appealing for funds.

Meanwhile, the Honan Provincial Mobilisation Committee is being urged to organise "comfort corps" to cheer the troops at the front and to administer emergency relief to the war refugees. The political departments of the various armies stationed in Honan are also co-operating with local governments in relief work.

EIRE EVACUATION TO BE EXPEDITED

DUBLIN, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—The importance of perfecting evacuation plans "while the time is still available" was stressed by Mr. William Norton, leader of the Labour Party in the Dail, broadcasting last night.

Mr. de Valera made a recent announcement that if the voluntary evacuation scheme proved unsatisfactory, the Government would resort to compulsion. "We know the plight of millions of refugees in other countries who had no time to prepare for evacuation and we have that lesson before us," he added.

London Takes Serious View Of Situation In Pacific

LONDON, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—A serious view is taken here of the position in the Pacific, especially after the Australian Ministers' warning of the situation in the Far East, writes Reuter's Diplomatic correspondent.

The Australian reaction to the warning of serious developments has given much satisfaction in London, while the American attitude is also all to the good.

In Allied circles in London, which are usually well-informed, it is felt that at the moment a crisis is not immediate.

It is pointed out that in view of the fact that negotiations between Indo-China and Thailand are proceeding and the armistice has just been prolonged another fortnight, it is unlikely that Japan would take any immediate action.

Also, although there has been talk of negotiations with Russia, Japan has not yet reached any agreement that would guarantee her rear if she were to undertake any adventurous operation to the south.

AMERICANS TO LEAVE FAR EAST

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—Americans were advised to leave the Far East, according to Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, who yesterday said Consular officers had warned U.S. citizens in Far Eastern countries to evacuate as a precautionary measure in view of the disturbed conditions.

The statement followed the publication of despatches from Tokyo and Shanghai saying that all women, children and all men who are able to do so have been urged to leave.

NIGHT ALERT IN LONDON

RAIDER DAMAGED BY SPITFIRE

LONDON, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—London had a short alert after dark last night, the first to be heard at such an early hour for several nights.

Shortly before the alert, a high explosive bomb fell in one London district where gunfire was also heard.

An enemy plane that attacked the Dover balloon barrage yesterday was badly damaged by a Spitfire. Smoke poured from the tail.

A communique issued by the Air Ministry and the Ministry of Home Security says: "A few enemy aircraft, for the most part flying singly, have crossed our coast during daylight today. Bombs were dropped at points in East Anglia and North Scotland. The damage caused was slight and casualties were very few."

China And Possibility Of Crisis In The Pacific

CHUNGKING, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—China's part in possible further developments in the Pacific is being so eagerly discussed here as to push the China War into the background.

It is realised that the future of the world now depends on whether Britain can hold out in Europe against the German onslaught and whether the combined British and United States forces in the Far East can defeat any eventual Japanese drive in the Southern Pacific.

The report that fresh evacuation advice has been given to United States citizens in the Far East has attracted much attention in Chungking. Prominence has also been given to a statement made by President Roosevelt on Tuesday to the effect that if the United States were forced into a war in the Pacific, it would not mean curtailment of war supplies to Britain. The President added that he thought that there was no danger of the United States getting into war.

London cables mentioning the possibility of a Japanese move in the Pacific in support of a German attack in Europe are also being discussed here.

These developments tend to confirm the information reaching Chinese Headquarters here that Germany has been very active in the last three weeks urging Japan to move in the Pacific against Britain and United States and also that Japan has agreed to support Germany.

Remarkable Exploits Of The "Long Range Desert Group"

LONDON, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—A remarkable story can now be told of how, following Italy's entry into the war, a small force of picked New Zealand and British troops went thousands of miles through the deserts of Southern Libya probing the secrets of Italy's defences and sabotaging her preparations, writes Reuter's correspondent with the British Imperial Forces in Libya.

Known as the "Long Range Desert Group," the force comprised picked officers and men from the New Zealand troops and the British Royal Armoured Corps. It was commanded by a Lieutenant Colonel famed as an explorer in the Libyan Desert, who was formerly a British official in the Egyptian Survey Department and a member of the Palestine Department of antiquities.

The force journeyed thousands of miles through the Southern Libyan deserts, carrying its own supplies, piloting enemy transport, shelling and capturing isolated forts, blowing up dumps and burning grounded aircraft.

The operations were conducted over a radius of over 700 miles south of the Oases of Siwa and Jerrabub, and the most valuable information was obtained.

After Italy's declaration of war, the presence at Kufra of enemy troops and aircraft in unknown numbers was very disturbing to the authorities. The enemy were also known to possess a number of motorised units constructed for desert work and capable of carrying out well-executed desert operations. There, therefore, existed a distinct threat to Upper Egypt by land and air.

It was imperative to find out the secrets lying behind the great sand barriers protecting Kufra and so the vanguard of the Long Range Desert Group set out, defying the sea of sand and the sweltering heat of the August sun.

THE VANGUARD
The vanguard, consisting of a British officer and five New Zealanders and two light cars crossed the sandy waste—and struck westward 200 miles behind the Kufra-Benghazi frontier. After days in the desert, studying wheel-marks and extracting a wealth of information by other means, the vanguard returned, having paved the way for further expeditions.

The same barrier was then crossed for the first time by the full Long Range Desert Group. Three columns of loaded trucks crawled 200 miles through the sand-waves. The New Zealanders, unaccustomed to the desert, soon adapted themselves to the conditions.

1,000-MILE RECONNAISSANCE
One truck fell over the brink of a sand dune and rolled 100 feet without being damaged. Hot winds blew a blanket of sand over the convoy.

The patrols separated, each setting off on a thousand-miles reconnaissance in different parts of enemy territory. Nothing was heard of them at G.H.O. for months. The three bands of bearded, unwashed but exultant "ruffians" appeared in Cairo with a batch of Italian prisoners and bags of captured documents.

One patrol examined all the roads leading to Kufra and penetrated 250 miles into Libya, and held up columns of enemy lorries in the best highwayman style.

MAIL CAPTURED
Their haul included the official mail for Kufra, containing enough information to reveal all the enemy's dispositions in the inner desert area.

A second party crossed the desert south-west of Kufra and travelled along the ancient caravan routes and made contact with the Free French outposts in Chad territory.

A third patrol found and destroyed an enemy bomber and a large dump of patrol and bombs.

EMPIRE PRESS COMPLAINT

PRESS CENSORSHIP & CABLE COST

LONDON, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—The complaint made at the annual meeting of the Empire Press Union that "messages from Egypt about the glorious achievements of the Army of the Nile has been costing about three times as much as it would between two parts of the Empire" is underlined in the Yorkshire Post editorial.

The paper says: "It would be an advantage to the Empire Press and Empire readers if Government could persuade Egypt to adopt the Empire flat rate of 24d. per word for press messages sent outside that country."

Reference was also made at the meeting to the handicaps of press censorship which delayed the vital news that gave advantage to broadcasting.

SENATE TO DEBATE ON THE AID BILL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—The measure passed by the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee regarding the Lease and Lend Bill was substantially the same as that passed by the House of Representatives.

The proposal to restrict Presidential authority under the Bill to send armed forces out of the Western Hemisphere was rejected by the Committee.

The Senate debate will begin on Monday. It is hoped to restrict it to a fortnight.

IMMINENT FALL OF TEPELINI

Italians Pounded By Greek Artillery

LONDON, Feb. 14 (Reuter)—The fall of Tepelini—a strategic Albanian town 30 miles south-east of Valona—is expected at any moment following the further strengthening of the Greek encircling movement reported on Wednesday, writes Reuter's correspondent at the Albanian front.

There is heavy Greek artillery fire on this sector.

The fighting in the Skumbi and Devoli River valley has been more violent, but Italian resistance to the Greek pressure is very strong.

Near Pogradets, on the eastern front, the Greeks have advanced over a mile with artillery support.

In the course of cross-examination of complainant, Mr. d'Almada suggested to him that the real facts of the case were that in 1934 first defendant was introduced to him that the two were to do work on a transaction. These were denied by complainant. Hearing was adjourned to Feb. 28, at 2.30 p.m.

ROBBERY CHARGED

Mr. H. A. de Barros Botelho's submission, at the close of the case in which six men were charged before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the District Office, South, yesterday, that his client (third defendant) and the other accused had no case to answer in respect of the charges of robbery by two or more and receiving stolen property, was upheld by his Worship in respect of the first charge.

As to the receiving charge, Mr. Botelho said that for such a charge to be proved there must be evidence of control, and the prosecution had not adduced such evidence.

Quok, who stood his trial on a charge of robbery last week, pleaded guilty, and sentence was postponed until today. His request was refused.

Quok admitted being one of the two men who figured in the daring daylight robbery at Robinson Road, when on Dec. 2, Mr. Chua Chee Yu, a cashier employed by Messrs. Shaw Brothers, was robbed of $5,400.

According to the prosecution it was stated that while Mr. Chua was proceeding in a ricksha with an attache case containing the money by his side, he was tipped out of the vehicle by one man, while Quok snatched the attache case containing the money and both of them ran away.

RAN FOR BICYCLES

The men ran for bicycles they had parked in Japan Street, but while the other man got away on his bicycle, Quok fell off his bicycle and ran into the back part of a coffee shop with the attache case still in his possession.

He was finally caught by spectators and Inspector C. S. Seow, who happened to be passing by in his car, and the money was recovered and handed to Messrs. Shaw Brothers.

When the case was mentioned, Chief Court Inspector E. H. Tunn informed Mr. McCall that the D.P.P. thought that Quok should be sentenced as there was no question of his having his sentence lightened in view of his giving evidence against Cheong Sun Heat, alleged to be the other man in the robbery.

NO FOREIGN CURRENCY AS DEPOSIT

"Our boarding officers have been instructed not to receive foreign currency as deposit," said the official spokesman of the Immigration Office at an interview yesterday.

A licensed money-changer boards every ship on arrival, and passengers who have to pay a deposit before being permitted to land were requested to change their money into Hongkong currency with the money-changer.

"There could, therefore, hardly be any justification or truth, in your informant's accusation that he paid $2 (Australian currency) and got back a receipt for H.K. $25."

NO MONOPOLY TO PHOTOGRAPHER'S STUDIO

According to the official spokesman of the Immigration Office, no monopoly has been granted to any photographer's studio in respect of photos for permits and certificates.

"Photographs meeting the requirements of this Office have always been, and will continue to be, accepted irrespective of where taken," declared the official.

Chinese photographers are, however, complaining that photographs taken at their studios have been often rejected by the General Agency.

At a meeting of the Shanghai Municipal Council held on Feb. 5, members unanimously elected Mr. G. E. Mitchell as Vice-Chairman of the Council on the departure of Mr. J. W. Carney from Shanghai.

The Chairman of the Council placed on record his personal appreciation and thanks and those of his colleagues for all that Mr. Carney has done for so many years for Shanghai.

NEW STAGE OF WAR TENSION

THE REPORTS which have been pouring in from all parts of the world of the approach of a new stage in the war tension have, in some cases, bordered on the sensational and might possibly tend to feelings of unnecessary alarm, particularly as far as these reports relate to possible developments in the Far East are concerned. It is not our purpose to try and minimise the new dangers that have begun to make themselves apparent in the Pacific—dangers that might result in the horrors of war being brought to these shores. The reports that have reached Hongkong during the past few days have, for the most part, been fairly authentic and cannot be entirely disregarded or lightly dismissed as a new phase of the "war of nerves" which the Totalitarian States have become accustomed to indulge in when their position has become seriously uncomfortable. It is recognised in the best informed political and military circles that Herr Hitler and the gangsters that he has gathered round him, either by cajolery or threat, are now with their backs to the wall and that some action by him and his pack of wolves had to be expected if they wished to avoid being driven back into their lairs. The yelping of the last few days must, therefore, presage a general brandishing of the Nazi pistol among their willing dupes for a concerted raid at points where they foolishly believe the ranks opposed to them are weakest.

THREATENING as the situation has thus become, there is not the slightest cause for undue anxiety and pessimism—for it is on the possibility of creating just such feelings that the fanatic in Berlin depends in a great measure for his success. The ordinary men and women in this part of the world have a striking example in the magnificent calm and undaunted courage which the people of Britain have been showing to the world in the past few months. They have already experienced all the terrors that war can bring and are resolutely determined to face anything else that may be ahead of them in the same spirit. It is of the greatest importance that the present grave situation which has arisen in the Pacific should be faced in the same manner and that nothing is done or said to give our enemies the impression that the people in this part of the world are being driven to a state of panic and hysteria. British and other interests in the Far East, who may feel that their security is likely to be threatened seriously in the near future, may rest assured that everything possible has been done to meet future developments.

THE FEELINGS of uneasiness that have arisen are primarily due to the vagueness of the actual position. Those in authority are, perhaps, better informed and

WORK OF SUB-DEPARTMENTS OF THE IMMIGRATION
OFFICE EXPLAINED

(BY OUR STAFF REPORTER)

In the course of an exclusive interview yesterday, a reporter of the Hongkong Daily Press was conducted through the various sub-departments of the Immigration Office by Mr. K. L. Dun, and had the work of these sub-departments explained to him.

"When an application is handed over the counter, it is checked by an assistant who checks it to see that it is properly filled in. It is then passed on to the Application Desk and carefully scrutinised, especially as regards to the guarantors.

"After, at the most, 24 hours, the form is handed to the Record office where, after being entered on the records, it goes to the Issuing department.

"Where sufficient proofs of the applicant's claims are furnished at the time of applying, applications are usually passed within 24 hours.

"As you can see no application on this, ('Application' desk is dated earlier than yesterday (Feb. 13)."

STRONG ROOM

Entering the strong room of the Immigration Office, our reporter was shown bundles and bundles of passes and permits lying on the shelves awaiting the return of the original applicants.

"All these applicants were in a great hurry to apply for their passes and/or certificates," said Mr. Dun, "but apparently thought that, after going through the formality of applying, there is no hurry to call for them. They gave no thought, or were indifferent, to the fact that they were delaying those who were in urgent need of passes and/or certificates, as with the men available we could only attend to a certain number of applications daily."

Reply to the alleged implication of indolence and acceptance of bribery, allegedly contained in our article of Feb. 11, Mr. Dun stated that all applicants are treated with every consideration and pointed out to our reporter a couple who were having some thing explained to them by an assistant.

PUT TO TEST

"As to our men demanding, or accepting, bribes the public is at liberty to put them to the test. The public is further invited to report to either Mr. Forrest or myself if any such demands, or requests, for 'tea money' is made," said Mr. Dun.

Referring to our statement that "the appointment of some of the staff appears to have been somewhat hurried and haphazard," Mr. Dun explained that insofar as the Chinese staff is concerned the men have, therefore, felt it incumbent to administer the stern warnings of the past few days and to make known the preparations that are being made to meet the threat when it materialises. The man-in-the-street, however, is unaware of the exact nature of the danger and is, therefore, inclined to indulge in idle speculation which can only tend to increase public nervousness. This should be earnestly avoided and the public should await authoritative information, confident that no effort will be spared to see that the people are properly notified of every development. The statements which have been issued from Australia must, for instance, be taken as coming from credible and well-informed sources and the implication is that, in conjunction with the thrust Herr Hitler is preparing to launch against Britain and the Balkans, a similar attack might be made on British interests in the Pacific. Where this move will be made is not indicated, but the statement that Malaya is prepared for any attack from any quarter points to the possibility of this Axis threat being directed towards that important outpost in the first instance. The need for calm is urgently needed and it should not be necessary to remind the people of Hongkong and their neighbours how the authorities expect them to play their part in the true British spirit when the call comes.

Shanghai Rice
Control PlanStrict Enforcement
In Public Interest

Concrete measures to curb rice hoarding, profiteering and speculation in the cereal have been suggested by the Supplies Subcommittee of the Shanghai Municipal Council who in turn has passed them on to its Rice Market Control Committee recommending that the measures be given a trial, according to an official communique issued on Feb. 7, reports the North China Daily News.

The Council, it was stated, has expressed the hope that in the interest of members of the market trade and the public, that immediate steps be taken by the rice market to introduce and vigorously enforce the measures suggested.

THE MEASURES

The measures are as follows:—
1. That it be made obligatory for all wholesale dealers in rice to be members of the Market.

2. That registration be made in the Market of all reputable rice brokers, and provision be made by the said broker for a suitable guarantee to be furnished, such guarantee to be satisfactory to the Rice Guild.

3. That it be obligatory for all merchants to write down all sides in their books as also on vouchers. When a transaction is concluded triplicate bills must be furnished, one to be given to the buyer, one to the market management and the third to be retained by the seller. Such bills should clearly state the price, quantity, quality, name and address of buyer and seller. Books, vouchers and the bills to be open for inspection by Officers of the Council whenever required.

COMPULSORY CONCENTRATION

4. That concentration in the market of all the local wholesale rice transactions be compulsory and the maintenance of the present minimum purchase of ten bags of rice at a time be enforced. That a deposit of $5 per bag be required on each transaction being concluded and the taking of delivery of cargoes within 5 days of completion of transaction to be strictly enforced, failing which the deposit shall be forfeited.

That the Guild appoint a recognised Bank to collect the deposits of $5 per bag and to produce receipts of such deposits for inspection, when required, by officers of the Council.

5. That the daily posting and publishing of selling prices be strictly enforced.

6. That up to date statistics be kept indicating forward purchases, arrivals, sales of rice, as also stocks, storage places, etc.

7. That dealing in cargoes of rice which have not yet arrived should be restricted to reputable wholesale dealers only."

Chung Ting, of No. 24, Granville Road, has reported to the Police that his son, Sun-wing, was bitten by his dog yesterday.

Hitler May Try To Work Up Crisis In The Far East

Although so many of the wilder rumours are without confirmation or foundation, there is no doubt that Herr Hitler, for our benefit, is trying to work up a crisis in the Far East, as well as in the Balkans," said MR. CYRIL LAKIN, B.B.C. commentator, when he broadcast from London yesterday on the international situation.

"However much he may want to avoid making this a world war, Herr Hitler is now being forced to make moves elsewhere and we are, therefore, justified in drawing a certain conclusion—and that is that if Herr Hitler had felt himself able to invade and knock out Britain in the spring, never for one moment would he have contemplated taking on these other campaigns.

BRITAIN THE OBSTACLE

"As one writer puts it," continued Mr. Lakin, "if Britain can draw Herr Hitler into a Mediterranean campaign, that would weaken him greatly. And yet it is clear that nothing short of the conquest of Britain herself could win the war for Herr Hitler. He might send his armies up to the very confines of India, it would be no good so long as Britain is free and receives more and more ships and materials of war from Canada and the United States. As Mr. Roosevelt remarked, an outbreak of war in the Pacific would not in any way affect the sending of aid to Britain.

"What is Herr Hitler hoping for? He is hoping first to conquer the whole of Europe by including the Balkans in his new order and to divert attention from the Mediterranean to the Pacific with the help of his third partner, Japan."

THE BALKANS

Commenting on the developments in the Balkans, Mr. Lakin said that Rumania, which had never been a country with a strong sense of national solidarity, had fallen completely under the influence of Nazi propaganda, bribery and corruption. What had happened in Rumania was only more blatant demonstration of the technique the Germans have succeeded in employing elsewhere. "In Bulgaria the position is not quite the same," declared Mr. Lakin. "Like the Yugoslavs, the Bulgarians are passionate patriots but they have never been able to pool their energies. Like the Yugoslavs, they feel isolated and now, according to reports, Germany has concentrated 400,000 troops along the Danube for a push into Bulgaria after the ground has been prepared for them by the so-called tourists and spies.

BULGARIA'S DEFEAT

Mr. Lakin referred to Bulgaria's defeat in the last war and said that since then Bulgaria's memories of their German allies had been anything but happy and the people of Bulgaria would be the last in the world to be associated with Germany again. "On the other hand, there is a ruling class in Bulgaria and many of these people regard Germany as the bulwark against Bolshevism," said Mr. Lakin. "Perhaps, some of them are dreaming of grandisement with Germany's help."

Mr. Lakin said that Yugoslavia, with Bulgaria overrun, would be in an unfortunate and tragic position. It was certain that if she was attacked she would fight, but Herr Hitler hoped to subjugate the country without a fight, as he is anxious to avoid what has happened in Greece taking place in Yugoslavia. "Doubtless, pressure has been brought to bear on Yugoslavia," said Mr. Lakin. "But that does not mean that the Yugoslavs will not resist. Pressure has been brought to bear on Marshal Petain and General Franco and they have not yielded. And so, in the case of Yugoslavia, we must wait and see how the Yugoslav people will give their answer."

PATCH UP PEACE

After a brief reference to Germany's intentions to patch up a peace between Italy and Greece in order to get concessions from Greece for the use of her air base at Crete and declaring that they could rest assured that Greece would not submit to such ignominious demands, Mr. Lakin turned to the Far East.

"Apart from Gibraltar and Suez, there is one strong point in the British Empire that the Axis covets," he said, "and that is Singapore. The Japanese hope to bring themselves closer to this prize by using the southern part of Thailand, but Singapore has taken precautions against such an attempt.

"Japan also has designs on the Dutch East Indies, to whom they have been sending a series of ostensibly economic demands. The most important points, coveted by the Axis are Singapore and the Suez.

THREAT SMASHED

"Australian troops in the Libyan desert, with their Empire comrades, have smashed the immediate threat to Suez, but the German game consists of dragging in Japan—so we might wonder whether Suez or Singapore is the more important of the two.

"Both are really important and as Mr. Curtin, the Australian Labour Leader said, both the back door and the front door of Singapore must be kept secure and, with American aid, we shall do so."

Mr. Lakin said that the Japanese should remember that their navy has never been up against a first class power and he expressed the hope that whatever wise counsels there were in Japan would prevail even now to prevent the nation being led into disaster.

REFUSE TO JOIN

LONDON, Feb. 14 (Reuters).—General Franco has refused to join the Axis in the war against Britain, according to reports from Vichy quoted by the DAILY MAIL Special correspondent on the French frontier.

The correspondent says that at the meeting in Bordighera, Mussolini asked Franco either to attack Gibraltar with Axis aid by sea and air or allow Germans to cross Spain and grant Italy sea and air bases.

To both the plans, Franco answered "no."

The report adds that at the meeting with Marshal Petain, the latter told Franco that France also would not re-enter the war.

IMMEDIATE CESSION

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (Reuters).—A message from Budapest states that the Bulgarian Government radio yesterday broadcast a demand for the immediate cession of a corridor through Greece to the Aegean Sea. It was argued that the territory between the Bays of Salonika and Pharos was formerly Bulgarian and that it still contains Bulgarians. The message added that the "problem has now become acute."

Lady Kerr, wife of the British Ambassador to China, arrived in Chungking on Thursday morning from Hongkong by plane.

STOP PRESS

Presenting his credentials to President Roosevelt in Washington yesterday, Admiral Nomura, the Japanese Ambassador, referred to recent developments which, he said, unfortunately caused considerable concern on both sides of the ocean, states a London message.

There are, as you have said, developments in relations between the United States and Japan," the President replied. Mr. Roosevelt welcomed Admiral Nomura's assurance that he was resolved to do all he could to bring about an understanding.—(Special)

The Japanese Consul in Australia yesterday stated that he saw no cause for alarm and a Government spokesman in Tokyo said that there was no imminence of war in the Pacific, states a London message.—(Special)

AUSTRALIA CLOSE TO THREAT ON OWN SHORES

another meeting would be necessary before Tuesday.

COMPLETE CONFIDENCE

Mr. Curtin, in a statement yesterday, said: "I have complete confidence in the work that is being done and we are in entire agreement with what the Government is doing."

News received in Australia from London showed that Australia's grave view of the position has had wide prominence.

THE TIMES says: "The slow and furtive movements by which Japan is closing her tentacles over Indo-China and Thailand bears a close resemblance to the Nazi technique in the Balkans. The course of Japan's policy has been a source of bewilderment and regret to foreign observers."

"Herr Hitler offers Japan such fields and advance recognition in the Far East which he is wholly powerless to give. Japan, however, seems ready to embark on action, which though it may temporarily embarrass Britain, will involve Japan in a war with two strong naval powers and if she persists it will end in disaster for herself."

IMPENDING CRISIS

In the United States the news from Australia has taken the headlines and nearly all newspapers speak of the impending crisis in the Pacific, but there is no backing to this news.

Mr. Cordell Hull was asked about the news and replied that he had no official knowledge of an urgent situation and no knowledge also that Dutch ships in the Far East had been ordered into neutral harbours.

THE SYDNEY MORNING HERALD declares that Japan's campaign is obviously to impress the United States, but adds that it is certain that the United States would not stand aside for long if such a war developed in the Pacific.

"A direct challenge to arms is being delivered to Britain in the Pacific and Britain is determined to meet them on her own. Defence plans have been designed on the assumption that we must rely on our own sources of resistance."

"There is no reason for dismay, but only a unanimous response to the appeal which the leaders of the War Cabinet have issued."

SPECIAL MEETING

The New South Wales Cabinet held a special meeting yesterday to consider special precautions necessary in relation to the statement issued by the Australian War Council.

The Far East situation was the leading story in all American newspapers on Thursday, states a London message.

THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE urged the wedding of the economic strength of the United States and the power of Britain.

Mr. Cordell Hull confirmed that American citizens in the Far East had been advised to leave and added that the advice was given so that in the event of any trouble the work of the Consulates would be considerably lightened.

PACIFIC CRISIS DEVELOPING

Japanese Seeking Accord With Soviet Russia

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (Reuters).—With a crisis apparently developing in the Pacific Ocean, considerable interest is being evinced here in Japanese statements concerning Russia and the reactions of Moscow and the bearing they may have on the actions of Japanese Imperialists.

The arrival of Adm. Nomura coincides with a considerable quantity of Japanese publicity, similar to that which heralded the arrival of Mr. Kenseki Hori-nouchi, former Japanese Ambassador, of an anti-Soviet nature and giving the general impression that the Soviet was really responsible for the sowing of seeds of discord in Japanese-American relations.

This coincides with reports from Moscow to the effect that the Japanese are straining every nerve to better relations with Russia even at the price of concessions not previously considered.

LEASE AND LEND BILL LAW IN THREE WEEKS

THE LEASE AND LEND BILL IS EXPECTED TO BECOME LAW IN TWO OR THREE WEEKS TIME, STATES A MESSAGE FROM SAIGON.

The Bill was passed by 15 votes to eight by the Commission of the Senate. The battle was not as hard as the leaders of the administration had expected and they are now confident that the Bill will be passed by the Senate.

The majority is expected to be three-quarters or two-thirds of the assembly.

In the Senate debate on the Bill, Senator Austin, deputy Republican leader, proposed that Britain, in return for American aid, should pledge herself to collaboration with the United States in construction of a new world.—(Special)

MORE DESTROYERS

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (Reuters).—The transfer of 40 or more United States destroyers to Britain shortly appeared likely on Thursday night, following a conference between Mr. Roosevelt and Colonel Knox, according to a Washington message to the NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE.

The message adds 46 old destroyers, now being reconditioned, could be transferred to Britain without affecting Col. Knox's argument that there are no destroyers to spare.

These destroyers are being converted to transport ships, hence no longer classified as destroyers.

ROOSEVELT-KNOX RIFT DENIED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (Reuters).—There is no controversy between President Roosevelt and Colonel Frank Knox, the Navy Secretary, or Mr. Wendell Willkie, on the question of turning over more destroyers to Britain, declares an announcement issued from the White House last night.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR LORD LLOYD

LONDON, Feb. 14 (British Wire-less).—The Prime Minister and Mrs. Churchill and members of the War Cabinet yesterday morning attended a memorial service for Lord Lloyd at Westminster Abbey.

HAVANA, Feb. 14 (Reuters).—Regulations prohibiting the dissemination of totalitarian propaganda of any kind by the press, radio, films or through the post were approved by the Cabinet yesterday.

According to a Police report, motor lorry No. 4325 collided with tramcar No. 53 in Connaught Road Central, near Macao Wharf, at 8.30 last night.

to invade and try to over-run China. That had only brought disaster for her. There was no need for Japan to continue her intrigues in Thailand and Indo-China.

Mr. Steed next turned to the Balkans and referred to Mr. Churchill's frank statement to Bulgaria and the other Balkan countries. Some people might think that the British Government had waited too long to make known its feelings in regard to what was happening there, but there were good reasons for the delay.

"Now we have good grounds for believing that wherever, and however, Herr Hitler may strike he will not catch us altogether napping," declared Mr. Steed, who then went on to a brief history of the Balkan countries where, he declared, cohesion has never been good. In the last war Bulgaria had made the mistake of going on the wrong side.

"I hope that Bulgaria is not going to make the same mistake again," said Mr. Steed. "Mr. Churchill has warned Bulgaria of what has happened to Belgium and Holland by clinging too strongly to neutrality, a policy which has ended in their people being enslaved and starved."

MR. CHURCHILL'S WARNING. "Mr. Churchill reminded them that if the Balkan people stood together, acted together, it would be many months before a German army could be assembled in South-East Europe. Much, of course, would happen by then as American aid to Britain becomes more effective and as our own army grows and increases in strength."

Mr. Steed declared, however, that as the trend of developments indicated he, for one, would not be surprised if Bulgaria "once again went on the wrong side and once more disappointed those who believe that she had the spirit to secure her deliverance from Nazi aggression."

Commenting on the visit of the Yugo-Slav Prime Minister and Foreign Minister to Germany, where they are to meet Herr Ribbentrop, Mr. Steed said that, since early in the nineteenth century when the struggle for the liberation of the Balkans began, the Slavs had never been the catspaw of others. Today the position of Yugo-Slavia was a difficult one, but they had been in tough places in the past and had always fought their way through.

MUSSOLINI'S POSITION. Referring to the meeting between General Franco and Signor Mussolini, Mr. Steed expressed the view that Signor Mussolini had been driven to seek this interview to get assistance as the result of what had happened at Genoa, on which the British navy had dropped 300 tons of high explosive shells.

Signor Mussolini and General Franco are reported to have reached a complete identity of views, but what the identity was about the world had not been told.

How Interned Greeks Captured Three Thousand Italians

THE PART PLAYED BY A GROUP OF INTERNED GREEK SOLDIERS IN ROUNDING UP ITALIANS DURING THE CAPTURE OF BENGHAZI by British troops is described in an Associated Press report from Libya, quoted in a London message.

The party of Greeks, numbering 130, were interned by the Italians when war broke out between their country and Italy, and were placed in a camp 80 miles south of Benghazi.

When the camp guards left to join their comrades in retreat, the Greeks seized arms, reformed ranks and went into battle.

WOPS SURPRISED. Surprising the Italians the Greeks inflicted considerable casualties and finally handed over to the British 3,000 prisoners, a general and a colonel.

One of the Greek soldiers said: "When the Italians attacked our country we were rounded up and put in a camp where we were fed on rotten food."—(Special).

15,000 IN INDIA. A further batch of Italian prisoners, comprising 200 officers and 3,000 men, have arrived in Bombay, states a London message. The total number of Italian prisoners of war in India is now 15,000.—(Special)

Japanese Attack On Lungkong Repulsed

CHUNGKING, Feb. 14 (Central).—Japanese troops invading Kwok-taihu, Shuihow and other points on the east bank of the North River in Kwangtung have been smashed by the Chinese.

The majority of them have retreated to Sunkai on the Canton-Hankow Railway, 17 miles north of Canton, while the rest are encircled between Chekmai and Pak-nai.

The Japanese invading at Lungkong, key village between Tamshui and Pingwu, about 12 miles east of the Canton-Kowloon Railway, have been driven back to Wangkong, south-west of Lungkong.

HUPEH FRONT

Fighting is still in progress in that area.

IN SOUTH SHANSI

HINGTSE, Feb. 14 (Central).—Following the recovery of Liuping, south-west of Tsincheng in south Shansi, on February 7, Chinese troops have been driving north. The Japanese tried to make a stand at Shuangchiang, north-west of Tsincheng, but were defeated by the Chinese. They have now retreated to Tunglingkow.

While a part of the Chinese are attacking at Tunglingkow, the rest are advancing on Tienghuiling.

BHOPAL, Feb. 14 (Reuters).—It is learned that a new special type of armoured car has been introduced in India and the Nawab of Bhopal is donating 10,000 rupees to the Viceroy's fund for the purchase of such.

News has been received from the Middle East that the Bhopal Sultan's Infantry has arrived there for active service.

CATHOLIC NEWS & NOTES

MARTYRS IN CHINA: MASS IN WEST END STORE: CATHOLIC DIPLOMATS

CHRISTIAN TRADITION SUPPLEMENTS WHAT THE SCRIPTURE TELLS US OF THE SLAVE ONESIMUS who is the subject of St. Paul's Epistle to Philemon. We are told that he became Bishop of Beraea and was eventually honoured as a saint. His feast is celebrated tomorrow.

Philemon, to whom St. Paul wrote, was a Greek living at Colossae, a friend of Paul and a Christian. He was evidently a rich man and he kept slaves. One of his slaves, Onesimus, who had evidently acted in some way incurring his master's displeasure, ran away. By doing this he put himself in great danger under the law, but he had evidently no definite idea as to what he should do, so he got as far as Rome and took refuge with Paul who was there at that time, awaiting trial.

Onesimus wanted to remain with him and Paul knew that if he asked Philemon he would willingly allow him to stay, but he felt that Onesimus should return, since he had wronged his master, so he sent him back with a letter. In this he did not definitely ask Philemon to emancipate him, but the whole tone of the letter suggests it, and it seems certain that Philemon did it at once.

Slavery presented one of the biggest problems to early Christianity. It was universal when Christianity was founded and was as the basis on which the whole economic order was founded. If Christianity had declared itself totally against it from the beginning it would have brought terrible reprisals on the slaves and would have put up a rigid barrier against the preaching of the Christian faith.

It was only as the result of a slow, painstaking campaign that Christianity finally succeeded in having slavery abolished in all Christian lands.

MARTYRS IN CHINA
Two feast-days during the coming week, on Monday and Tuesday, recall French missionaries who died as martyrs in China. The first is Blessed Francis Clet, a professor of Anatomy whose reputation for learning was such that he was called a "living library."

When the French Revolution upset the life of the Church in France he came to China, with many other members of the Congregation of the Mission to which he belonged. He worked in Kiangsi, but incurred the hostility of some prominent men in the Government and had to do most of his work privately in the villages. Eventually he was captured in Nanchang and executed in 1820.

Blessed John Peter Nél was a member of the French Foreign Missionary Society. He came to China forty years after St. Francis Clet and his sojourn was equally short. He worked in Kweichow. With him are associated in the honour given to martyrs twelve Chinese laymen and women, mostly of Kweichow province, who died as martyrs about the same time.

All these died as the result of the decree of 1811, which was the last edict against Christianity and was acted on from time to time according to the will of particular local governors.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST. SCIENTIST

31 Macdonnell Road. Service on Sunday, February 16, 1941.

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches will be "Soul."

The Golden Text will be: "Let all these that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified." (Psalms 70:4)

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible: "For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." (Romans 8: 5, 6)

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "When understanding changes the standpoints of life and intelligence from a material to a spiritual basis, we shall gain the reality of life, the control of soul over sense, and we shall perceive Christianity, or Truth, in its divine Principle. The physical healing of Christian Science results now, as in Jesus' time, from the operation of divine Principle, before which sin and disease lose their reality in human consciousness and disappear as naturally and as necessarily as darkness gives place to light and sin to reformation." (Science and Health, Pages 322, 361).

U.S. CITIZENS ADVISED TO QUIT H.K.

Consular Circular

The following advice to U.S. citizens resident in the Colony was issued by Mr. A. E. Southard, United States Consul-General, yesterday:—

"In accordance with standing instructions from the Department of State, I again remind U.S. Citizens in this area of the advice given in our Circular Notice of Oct. 9, 1940, to the effect that women and children, together with men whose continued presence here is not essential, should go home as soon as they can conveniently arrange to do so.

"The Department of State has reminded me that it is making no assumption that a situation of 'acute physical danger to U.S. Nationals is imminent' in reiterating at this moment its previous advice to our citizens about going home. This reiteration of advice is not meant to be alarmist, and is made now mainly because of the continued existence in the Far East of political uncertainties which might at any time obstruct the protection of the safety, rights and privileges which our citizens living abroad expect and to which they are entitled from our Government.

"Our Government does not at this time contemplate repeating the special transportation arrangements made a few months ago to assist in the withdrawal of U.S. Citizens, and those who plan to go home are therefore advised to take advantage of the currently available regular transportation facilities."

SPAIN TODAY: RAVAGES OF CIVIL WAR VISIBLE ON ALL SIDES

Everything in Spain looks run down and in disrepair, and the ravages of the civil war which ended more than 18 months ago are visible on all sides, according to Mr. Henry P. McNulty, United Press correspondent, in the Japan Chronicle.

An entire section of Madrid is a mere ghost town without lights and with few inhabitants for miles. Even in mid-town there are buildings still showing the pockmarks of bullets and shrapnel.

In some of the ruined apartment houses poor people hang a sheet or rug over the holes in their walls and live as though nothing had happened. However, the whole eastern section of the city came through the war comparatively unscathed, and the bull-ring was untouched.

The correspondent arrived in Madrid when the city was exulting over the release of a supply of beer and the reappearance of taxis for the first time in months.

"The day Mr. Heinrich Himmler, Nazi Gestapo chief, departed after his conferences with General Francisco Franco, I waited in the rain for five hours to see the military spectacle," the correspondent says. "Madrid's buildings were hung with flags in his honour. Some of the Nazi flags had swastika printed backwards. At intervals of 100 feet special police guarded the route. Mr. Himmler was to take."

"At the airport there was unusual activity. Smartly uniformed German officers stood talking in small groups. Spanish officers looked expectantly down the road to Madrid. Civilian plane passengers were ignored."

"Eventually there was a roar of motor-cycles, followed by a cavalcade of big American cars. The officers snapped to attention, saluted, and Himmler stepped

LACK OF PRECAUTIONS

"There he briefly reviewed a squad of Spanish soldiers, to the accompaniment of a brass band playing the Spanish anthem. Then he stepped into one of the Junkers and zoomed off into the east. I was surprised at the lack of precautions about strangers. There was no questioning of on-lookers, no rules laid down. But the performance went off like clockwork."

"The soldiers deployed along the way had been dressed in new uniforms of blue with red trimmings. There had not been enough new ones to go around, however, so the last few miles to the airport had been guarded by gendarmes in the old uniform of tricorn hat and cape of dark blue."

"New uniforms are an unusual thing for Spain, for everything seems to be old. The hotel where Himmler stayed, for instance, was the Ritz, but the only indication of its name was the weather stains left by a long defunct neon sign removed from its top floor long ago."

"The overworked trolleys, according to many Madrilenos, should have been junked years ago. Now that there is so little gasoline available for automobile travel, they carry three times the load for which they were intended. The buildings need paint, and hundreds of them need repairs."

"It is almost impossible to get eggs in Madrid. The bread is almost black and you are allowed only one piece at a meal. Butter is rationed and scarce. Often it is rancid when you get it. The coffee is 'ersatz' and exceedingly distasteful."

"Sugar is hard to get. Spaniards are allowed meat three times a week. One day a week is set aside as 'one dish day' which means that only one main dish can be served, with the usual supplementary dishes of soup, dessert, fruit and bread."

RESTRICTIONS FOSTER SMUGGLING

"The restrictions on food and cigarettes foster quite a smuggling business in some of these products." If you know the proprietor of a restaurant you can usually get what you like, although with the lack of fats Spanish cooks are hard put to it to offer much variety. You can still get American cigarettes for about 50 cents a package.

"Although the food in Spain is not good, the farther north you go the better conditions seem to exist. Barcelona, which was bombed numerous times, has been repaired to a large extent and looks more prosperous than Madrid. Its harbour, however, is crowded with idle Spanish ships. The beggars, so noticeable in Madrid, are few in Barcelona, and there are far fewer ragged children picking up cigarette butts for resale, from the streets and the cafe floors."

"Farther north near the French border in a small country town, I found that bombs had left gaunt and bare walls. I was shown the ruins of an air raid shelter, directly hit, where 27 citizens lost their lives. But the strolling hour, from 8 to 9 o'clock in the evening just before Spain eats dinner, sees the senoritas and senors walking round and round the main square or 'Rambla' to see and be seen as though things were all as they should be. The next day a taxi charged me a pre-1929 price for a 10-mile detour around a flooded railroad bridge."

The United States Administration has expressed a desire to continue sending vitamins and milk as well as medical products to France, states a message from Saigon. (Special)

POLO POSTPONED

Bad weather yesterday necessitated postponement of both matches in the American Polo Tournament for the "Lady Stubbins Cup" that were to have been played at Boundary Street yesterday.

NEW PLANE FOR HIGHER AIR FIGHTS

Washington.—A type of pursuit aeroplane which gives the pilot greater visibility and more firing power has been designed by Alexander P. de Seversky of Northport, N.Y. It is revealed in a patent (No. 2,219,980) issued to the designer.

It is powered by a single liquid-cooled engine for greater safety. It has as many as four propellers and a sealed-in cabin to permit military operations in the stratosphere.

It is powered by a single liquid-cooled engine mounted in a cradle on the bottom of the fuselage, just behind the pilot who sits above it. Two propellers give extra lift for flying in the rare atmosphere of the stratosphere. They are mounted in the rear and are of the pusher type.

FOUR PROPELLERS

All four propellers are driven by means of long shafts by the single engine. When not in use the two rear propellers may be folded up into a streamlined configuration.

Since there is no engine or propeller in the nose it may be heavily armed. The patent shows six 50-caliber machine guns and one 37-millimeter cannon mounted in the nose.

An armour of bullet-proof steel protects the pilot. The fuselage is narrow, hardly greater than the width of the body of the pilot.

The patent, which is assigned to the Seversky Aircraft Corporation, is silent as to the speed of the ship.

ONE WAY TO END A STRIKE

By simply jailing the 600 strikers in order to give them time to cool off and adopt a more reasonable stand, the Santiago authorities broke a strike of bus workers in the capital.

While the strikers were cooling their heels in the local jail, the Home Minister, Senor L. Salas Romo, informed the leaders of the strike that he would be willing to arbitrate in the matter and to free the strikers if they should accept to go back to work immediately.

The proposal was hastily accepted by the strikers, with the result that the bus service was disrupted for a few hours only.

S'HAH CHINESE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

SHANGHAI, Feb. 14 (Reuter).—It is reported that the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, which was raided by a Japanese party on Wednesday, will transact all its business hereafter in Hongkong whither all important documents and archives have been moved.

All certificates for Chinese manufactured products, which are absolutely required for shipments from Shanghai to Free China regions, will be obtainable in Hongkong, it is added.

Meanwhile, the new Chamber organised by the Nanking regime has begun operating.

ALUMINIUM COINS DANGEROUS

May Prove Fatal If Swallowed

According to an announcement by Dr. Kuroda of the Osaka Imperial University, aluminium ten, five and one sen pieces are invisible to Roentgen rays and therefore may prove fatal if swallowed by infants.

Since the beginning of this year, Dr. Kuroda stated, three small children have been brought to the university hospital, and each time, when X-rays were applied, it was impossible to locate coins in their throats.

Alarmed over this discovery, he took X-ray photographs and only on careful study of the developed film could he make out the shape of the coins. When examining such patients, Dr. Kuroda pointed out, it is not enough to apply X-rays, but X-ray pictures must be taken in future to find out the presence of aluminium coins in the throat.
